NEWSFLASH NO 14 OF 2012

Dear BPSU members

To stay in line with current legislation, the Management Committee of the BPSU has decided that for all future applications for Dedicated Sportsman status from SABU, we require that you submit a competency certificate for Muzzle Loaders.

The complete application should therefore contain the following documents:

- Application form with proper motivation (download application form from www.bpsu.co.za/BPSU_DedicatedSport.html)
- Proficiency (Training) Certificate complying with Unit Standards for Muzzle Loading firearms (Unit Standard number 243200)
- Competency Certificate for a Muzzle Loading firearm
- Letter from your primary club to confirm that you are a paid up member for the year of application
- Scores or proof of attendance for the 12 months preceding the application
 - You need 6 points to apply
 - BPSU sanctioned club shoot = 1 point
 - BPSU sanctioned provincial championship = 2 points
 - BPSU & SABU sanctioned national championship = 3 points
 - SASCOC & SABU approved international championship = 5 points
 - You can only claim the points for one category at a time, i.e. if a provincial match is shot at a national championship, you can only get 3 points, not 5
- Copy of ID document
- Copy of a valid firearms license
- Bona Fide Sportsman certificate under the previous Act (if available)

This needs to be forwarded to the BPSU secretary for further management.

Kind regards
