For immediate release:

South Africa: Transportation of firearms on BA/Comair/Kulula Flights

Please be advised that with effect from 1 March 2013, Comair will no longer be accepting firearms for carriage on any domestic or regional flight operated by both the British Airways and Kulula brands. This includes all hunting rifles, or any weapon requiring special handling, that may not be carried as either hand luggage or checked baggage.

Passengers who hold bookings on any BA/Comair or Kulula flight after this date will need to make alternative flight bookings. Please note, this information only applies to Southern African flights and does not apply to British Airways international flights between London and South Africa.
